New flavours at Inguru

Catering to simply everyone with a myriad of options be it villas, wining and dining, or recreation, Kuramathi is a large yet luxuriant island that offers something for everyone. Inguru is one of 9 à la carte restaurants on the island, offering light menu options for lunch and Asian Fusion delicacies for dinner. Like all our à la carte restaurants, it is included in our popular Select All Inclusive package. This month, Inguru introduced its newest additions to the menu, including 6 appetizers/mains, but most importantly a completely new desserts menu!

Some of the new entries include foie gras and duck leg confit fritter prepared the Thai way, mouth-watering tuna ceviche with a Japanese taste to it, roasted zucchini and shiitake, and an already a favourite, the miso ramen with chashu pork belly, pak-choi, mangetout and pickled egg.

Making its way into the completely new sweets menu are 6 unique desserts that will make your choice all that much impossible. You can choose from an almond chocolate mousse and lin seeds milk, a basmati panacotta with taro ice cream and sesame nougatine, or a "grand cru" chocolate bar served with Japanese Hokkaido milk ice cream. Other tempting choices include a mango confit with passion fruit, mango and home-grown young coconut, an exotic fruit tartare or the caramelised brioche with fresh raspberries and wasabi ice cream

We look forward to taking you on this journey through the tastes of Asia.
